RAPIDO/LIBRE

Handwritten musical score in red ink. The score includes a treble clef, a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#), and a 4/4 time signature. The notation is dense and expressive, with many slurs and dynamic markings. Labels include "Rasgado", "Pulgares", and "Tambora". There are also some scribbled-out notes and a small diagram of a stringed instrument on the left.

Handwritten musical score in yellow ink. The score includes a treble clef, a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#), and a 4/4 time signature. The notation is dense and expressive, with many slurs and dynamic markings. Labels include "Inquietante - Inquietante - Ungleichmäßig" and "dejar vibrar".

A CHAMBER MUSIC OASIS...

The Louisiana concerts consist of two subscription series – a Thursday series and a Friday series, each of seven concerts. The subscription price for the Thursday series is DKr 1850 and for the Friday series is DKr 2000. Children and young people under 25, DKr 700.

A subscription also gives you free admission to two concerts with the prize-winners in two of the most prestigious piano competitions in 2011, the Ferruccio Busoni Competition and the Beethoven Piano Competition in Bonn.

The dates of these two concerts will be announced at www.louisiana.dk immediately after the competitions have been held, in September and November respectively.

Subscribers will further have free admission to a concert with the Seattle Chamber Players and the Figura Ensemble in September.

For all three bonus concerts, tickets can only be booked three weeks before each concert on the first-come-first-served principle.

Subscriptions can be ordered by phone at (0045) 2858 5058 or from lf@louisiana.dk.

Tickets for all other concerts outside the series can only be ordered from www.politikenbillet.dk/louisiana
